2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Georgiou, "A Programmable Scalable Platform for Next Generation Networking", submitted by the applicant.

Georgiou teaches the invention as claimed including a self-contained microprocessor subsystem for use in an SoC IC (abstract, line 7) comprising a SoC IC communication bus device and standardized components (page 2, left col., last line and the next line) for enabling communication, the subsystem comprising elements as shown in Fig. 2 and including multithreading capabilities (page 3, left col., line 14), performing functions as described in the presented application specification for fig. 6.
